THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

June 7, 2015

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTORAL STAFF

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

This weekend we embrace the Body of Christ in so many ways: the body that is the Church (both local and global); the body and blood of Christ that feed us through the Eucharist; the family body that we belong to; and our own human bodies. Whichever way we choose to focus, our celebration honors Jesus Christ as our personal and corporate center, feeding us, guiding us and connecting us to one another. Later this week on Friday, June 12, the Church will celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, which reminds us of how God's love and mercy are at the "heart" of divine existence. And since the heart is what pumps life-giving blood through the human body, just so the heart of God circulates love into the Body of Christ, sustaining it. As members of Christ's Body, we are invited to imbibe God's love and manifest it to the world. The perspective here is indeed a Christian one, yet we must never forget that all people are our brothers and sisters, baptized or not, and deserving of our love and care. Let's take a brief look at each part of the body:

THE BODY that is HUMAN God has given each of us a human body to care for and to use for divine purposes. Our bodies are not really our own – they are a gift from God for God's glory. Early Church Patriarch, St. Irenaeus (130-202 AD) reminds us that the glory of God is a human being fully alive! Consider what you do to care for your body so that it will be at maximum potential and fully alive to God! At points throughout our life, our bodies will suffer illness and disease and the day will come when Sister death will eventually claim our mortal bodies. This we know. Yet while we have use of them, let us dedicate every part of our bodies to God's glory. For the last 25 years or so, part of my morning ritual after a shower is to bless every part of my body for God's purposes. The blessing prayer is somewhat like a cross between the prayer Catholics recite after the Gospel is announced and the Breastplate of St. Patrick. My version goes something like this: May God be in my mind, my words, my song, my heart (my emotional center), my digestive system, my bones (praying most especially for my spine these days), my hands and feet to serve, and my sexual energy (which I understand to be relational energy, the part that connects me to others, in chastity, according to the life I have chosen and the vows I have made). I normally use blessed oil of some kind during this ritual. It is one of the ways I try to dedicate my entire self to God each day. I invite you to find a daily way to consecrate your body to God, since each of our bodies, through baptism, is an individual body of and for Christ.

THE BODY that is FAMILY God has arranged that we be born into families. A family will never give us everything we need and sometimes they offer us very little. The best of families, however, prepare us well to become life-giving members of the greater body. Consider how you might be a blessing for your family.

THE BODY that is PARISH The Catholic Church has divided the world into parishes within dioceses. Parishes are the means through which the sacraments are distributed, fostering the Body of Christ. Structurally, our parish has been showing her age and decrepitude and is in need of a makeover! The church renovation was completed a few years back and now it is time to breathe new life into the grounds and infrastructure which will begin this summer.

THE BODY that is UNIVERSAL CHURCH We must never forget that we are connected globally as a Catholic Church. Although our headquarters, the Vatican, lies in Europe, the greater population and practice of Catholicism lies south of the equator. It is difficult to find a balance that addresses the needs of all people in the world. We must trust in the Holy Spirit to find our way.

THE BODY that is EUCHARIST Christ has blessed us with the gift of his very self so that we might consume him and grow to be like him. He humbles himself, disguised as bread and wine so that we might humble ourselves before others. Let us never take for granted the precious gift we have in the Body of Christ shared around the table that gathers us each week.

Together with you in the Body of Christ,

WE ARE LIVING STONES—POPE FRANCIS SPEAKS TO OUR HEARTS

“How do we live our being Church? Are we living stones, or are we, as it were, stones that are weary, bored, or indifferent? Have you ever noticed how grim it is to see a tired, bored, and indifferent Christian? A Christian like that is all wrong; the Christian must be alive, rejoicing in being Christian; he or she must live this beauty of belonging to the People of God which is the church. Do we open ourselves to the action of the Holy Spirit, to be an active part of our communities, or do we withdraw into ourselves, saying, “I have so much to do; it isn't my job!”?

The Lord gives all of us his grace, his strength, so that we may be profoundly united to Christ, who is the cornerstone, the pillar and the foundation of our life and of the whole life of the Church. Let us pray that enlivened by his spirit, we may always be living stones of his Church.”

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

The beginning of love is to let those we love be perfectly themselves, and not to twist them to fit our own image. Otherwise we love only the reflection of ourselves we find in them. ~ Thomas Merton

PRAYER OF THE WEEK—IT ONLY TAKES ONE

One song can spark a moment,
One flower can wake the dream.
One tree can start a forest,
One bird can herald spring.
One smile begins a friendship,
One handclasp lifts a soul.
One star can guide a ship at sea,
One word can frame the goal.
One vote can change a nation,
One sunbeam lights a room.
One candle wipes out darkness,
One laugh will conquer gloom.
One step must start each journey,
One word must start each prayer.
One hope will raise our spirits,
One touch can show you care.
One voice can speak with wisdom.
One heart can know what's true.
One life can make the difference,
You see it's up to You!

Prayer & Devotions

Centering Prayer

"Sometimes people get the mistaken notion that spirituality is a separate department of life, the penthouse of existence. But rightly understood, it is a vital awareness that pervades all realms of our being...Wherever we may come alive, that is the area in which we are spiritual." ~

Brother David Steindl-Rast

Our centering prayer groups offer us the opportunity to rest in grateful silence with our God.

All are welcome to join us each Tuesday at 4:00 p.m. in the Franciscan Rooms and every 1st and 3rd Monday at 7:00 p.m. in the church. Please contact Trish Rice at (714) 465-6878 or pdrice2012@gmail.com for more information.

In Remembrance

Our deepest sympathy and heartfelt prayers go out to parishioners and their family members who have died this week: Edward Jamieson (husband of Betty), Laura Jolicoeur Lasnier (mother of Lucille Harmon) and Jessica Neilson. May the souls of all who have died, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING

U.S. Wealth Inequality Keeps Growing

A startling fact appeared in The Guardian this week. They quoted academic research claiming that the top 0.1% of the U.S. population is worth as much as the bottom 90%. "Not since the Great Depression has wealth inequality in the U.S. been so acute."

Pope Francis in a weekday homily during Mass at Casa Santa Marta said, "If you are wealthy, make sure your riches serve the common good...An abundance of things lived selfishly is sad, steals hope, and is the origin of all kinds of corruption...Why?"

Francis answers by saying that "There is a mystery in the possession of wealth. Riches have the ability to seduce and make us believe that we are in a paradise on earth without horizons—similar to a neighborhood he remembers seeing in the seventies inhabited by wealthy people who had built walls and fences to defend their property from thieves."

"Living without horizons is a sterile life; living without hope is a sad life. The attachment to wealth makes us sad and makes us sterile. I say 'attachment,' I'm not saying good administration of ones riches, because riches are for the common good. And if the Lord gives to one person, it is so they can be used for the good of all, not for oneself, not so they are closed in one's heart, which then becomes corrupt and sad."

Such statements have caused many to question Pope Francis' economics and some have even called him a socialist—reminiscent of what William Buckley said of Pope John's encyclical, Mater et Magistra, (mother, yes; teacher, no.) Pope Francis seems to be asking us if we are willing to live without horizons in order to protect our property and possessions.

Just what would life be like without horizons--If we were satisfied to be limited to what we know and believe by what we can actually see and touch? The joy of discovery, the anticipation and creation of beauty, the excitement of surprise, the exhilaration of contemplating the immensity of God, and the belief that we must together create a world of peace and justice are all on the horizon!

Introducing Our New Parish Logo

This Pentecost as we celebrated the birth of our Catholic Church, we also celebrated the birth of our new parish logo. This new logo now appears in the bulletin, our website and our Facebook page. In addition, once our current printed material stock has been exhausted, all other printed materials will be updated with the new logo.

Sts. Simon & Jude's parish logo is a symbol of our parish identity that embraces our Franciscan charism and recognizes our unique beach culture, and its redesign conveys these parish attributes with a more contemporary look. Although the use of the letters SSJ in our community has long been informal, it has become synonymous with our parish name. With this new logo, that association is now formalized. The two "S" letters have been designed to resemble and symbolize a blue ocean wave, while the design of the letter "J" originates from the most common symbol associated with the Franciscan Order, the Tau Cross – a simple brown cross based on the Greek letter "T."

In 1215, at the Fourth Lateran Council, Pope Innocent referenced the Tau Cross and the passage from Ezekiel 9:4 -6, wherein an angel is instructed by God to go and mark the foreheads of the faithful with the Tau symbol. It is widely believed that St. Francis of Assisi was present at the Council and that this is when he wholeheartedly embraced the Tau cross as his symbol. St. Francis used it in his writings, painted it on walls and doors wherever he stayed, and even used it as his signature. St. Francis would also stretch out his arms, to show his friars that their habit was also a Tau Cross. He instructed them to not only let that serve as a reminder, but also as an active symbol for them to be a walking crucifix in their lives. Due to St. Francis' love for the Tau Cross, it became associated with the Franciscan Order.
